Some men are get-ting They'll have to force the Since I got mar-ried
My house is a remar-ried so they won't be call'd to war— But if they want to dodge it what do sin- gle men to go to war I fear— The mar-ried men all want to go they my wife char- ges ev'- ry-thing to me— But I'd re-verse the char- ges and I'd cruit- ing sta- tion for her fam- i- ly— They're first in war and first in peace and they get mar-ried for— It takes a- bout a year or more to train a sol- dier al- ways vol- un- teer— It takes the brav- est of the brave to bear the bat- tles charge the en- e- my— I'm al- ways on the fir- ing line of that there is no first for lunch you see— Now I treat them to an- y- thing and ev'- ry- thing I right— A year of mar-ried life will make them all know how to fight—brunt— That's why they al- ways find the mar-ried men way out in front—doubt— When she in- vites her com- pa- ny I'm al- ways must- er'd out—get— But like a gal- lant ar- my they have not re- treat- ed yet—
